WORLD LANGUAGES AND CULTURES ADVISING NEWSLETTER

FALL AND WINTER 2019 REGISTRATION WINDOWS:

Tuesday, April 1 – Friday, April 12, 2019

It is strongly recommended that you meet with your advisor before course registration!

WHY LANGUAGES?

The study of languages, cultures, and literature gives us a better understanding of our modern, complex and multicultural world. Our faculty members represent over 10 countries and speak: Arabic, Chinese, Danish, English, French, German, Italian, Hebrew, Japanese, Polish, Russian, Spanish and Yiddish. We sponsor numerous activities such as trips, speakers, language clubs, and a wide variety of study abroad possibilities. WLC creates a dynamic environment that prepares students to become global citizens.

OUR MISSION

The Department of World Languages and Cultures is a culturally and intellectually diverse and welcoming community of faculty, staff, students, and alumni who value knowledge, multicultural awareness and the free and responsible exchange of ideas. The Department of World Languages and Cultures recognizes and follows the ACTFL World-Readiness Standards for learning languages.

Announcing the new World Languages and Linguistics major!

Pending NJ Dept. of Education approval in June

Info inside!

MINORS

The Department of World Languages and Cultures offers minors in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Spanish, Linguistics, and Russian Studies. The minor typically consists of 5 course units, although the requirements vary for the intensive language programs. A minimum grade of C is required in all courses taken to fulfill the minor requirements.

- We encourage all our minors to study abroad. All courses taken abroad will count towards graduation. Two of the courses will count towards the five courses required for a minor.

Please check the World Languages and Cultures Undergraduate Bulletin for the specific minor requirements for each language

SPANISH/EDUCATION MAJORS

Requirements for Spanish teachers

STUDY ABROAD

Study abroad students may take up to five courses. Upon completion of the courses with a grade of C- or better, all credits will count towards graduation. Spanish majors may count up to three 300-level courses towards their major. Spanish minors may count up to two courses towards their minor.

To study abroad in the Spring semester, your application must be submitted by September 28

Unless otherwise specified, overseas courses will be counted in the following ways:

- Students who take 200 level courses overseas may receive credit for SPA 219, or SPA 241 or SPA 270 as determined by the course content.
- Students who take 300 level courses overseas will receive credit for SPA 370 IF they have met the pre-requisites cited above for the course they have elected. In this case, they will receive credit for SPA 370 under the categories of literature or culture or linguistics as determined by the course content. Specifically, students who intend to receive credit for:
  - 370 Culture must have completed three 200 level courses
  - 370 Literature must have completed SPA 241
  - 370 Linguistics must have completed SPA 215
- Students who enroll in 300 level course overseas without having completed the necessary pre-requisites at the time of registration will not receive 300-level credit. They will receive credit for SPA 270 instead.

TCNJ Spain Program at the Instituto Franklin/Universidad de Alcalá de Henares, Spain

*TCNJ is proud to offer a study abroad program at the Universidad de Alcalá de Henares during the Spring semesters. # New major in Fall 2019!

WORLD LANGUAGES AND LINGUISTICS

This new major offers students a strong grounding in linguistics coupled with in-depth study of a world language already offered at the college. Students select a language specialization at the time of joining the major, which will be reflected on their transcript at the time of graduation. The new major is housed in the Department of World Languages and Cultures, and incorporates the best practices with regard to the teaching of world languages already in place in the WLC Department.

World Languages and Linguistics (WLL)

- The major works well as a second major with many other HSS majors.
- Linguists can seek important work in numerous fields across the world including international business, law enforcement, marketing, or government work
- Liberal Learning requirements can be fulfilled while completing the major.
- Contact Regina Morin (rmorin@tcnj.edu) or Holly Didi-Ogren (holly.didi-ogren) for general queries.
- Come to an information session on April 2 at 5 p.m. in Bliss 332, the 3rd floor conference room

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The pending World Languages and Linguistics Major will enable students to combine a strong grounding in linguistics, including language acquisition, with in-depth study of these language already offered at TCNJ: Arabic, French, Italian, Japanese, and Spanish. The major will consist of five linguistics courses and seven courses in a world language offered by TCNJ. The seven courses in a world language will be the student's specialization within the major, and that specialization will be tracked in PAWS and reflected on the student's transcript. At least 5 courses must be taken at the 300 level.

Linguistics Requirements

- All students must take WLC 390 (Second Language Acquisition and Related Methodologies )

Choose at least one WLL Foundation Course (Linguistic Theory):

- LNG 201/Introduction to the English Language
- WLC 215/Introduction to Linguistics
- ANT 213 Language and Culture: An Introduction to Linguistic Anthropology

Choose at least one Linguistic History Core Course:

- LNG 202/Structure and History of the English Language
- WLC 321/Introduction to Historical Linguistics
- WLC 220/Introduction to Romance Linguistics

Choose at least two Linguistics options. At least one option must be at the 300 level or above. Any core course not listed here can be chosen as an option:

- ANT 390/Research Course in Anthropology (when the topic is related to discourse analysis)
- JPN 370/Topics in Japanese (when the title is Introduction to Japanese Linguistics)
- LNG 391, SPA 391, or other appropriate Independent Study
- LNG 311/Contemporary English Grammar
- LNG 371/American English Dialects
- LNG 372/World Englishes
- PHL 421/Philosophy of Language
- SPA 215/Spanish Phonetics
- SPA 301/Advanced Spanish Grammar
- SPA 350/ Introduction to Spanish Linguistics
- SPA 351 Spanish/English Translation I
- SPA 372/ History of the Spanish Language
- SPA 373/Introduction to Hispanic Bilingualism in the United States
- WLC271/WGS271/ANT270 Gender and Language
- WLC 371/Topics in Linguistics in English

Info session

Tuesday, April 2, 5 pm
Bliss 332

World Languages Requirements

The major assumes no previous foreign language study. Even if students enter with no knowledge of a foreign language, they will have ample time to complete the required seven language courses. Students entering the major at a higher proficiency level will be able to take a greater number of upper level courses in the foreign language. Students will be actively encouraged to complete at least one semester of study abroad. They will be able to take three language and linguistics courses for the WLL major and one free elective during their semester abroad.
