WORLD LANGUAGES AND CULTURES ADVISING NEWSLETTER

SPRING AND SUMMER 2020 REGISTRATION WINDOWS:

Tuesday, November 5 – Friday, November 15, 2020

It is strongly recommended that you meet with your advisor before course registration!

WHY LANGUAGES?

The study of languages, cultures, and literature gives us a better understanding of our modern, complex and multicultural world. Our faculty members represent over 10 countries and speak: Arabic, Chinese, Danish, English, French, German, Italian, Hebrew, Japanese, Polish, Russian, Spanish and Yiddish. We sponsor trips, speakers, language clubs, and a variety of study abroad options. WLC creates a dynamic environment that prepares students to become global citizens.

OUR MISSION

The Department of World Languages and Cultures is a culturally and intellectually diverse and welcoming community of faculty, staff, students, and alumni who value knowledge, multicultural awareness and the free and responsible exchange of ideas. The Department of World Languages and Cultures recognizes and follows the ACTFL World-Readiness Standards for learning languages.

World Languages and Linguistics major

MINORS

The Department of World Languages and Cultures offers minors in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Spanish, Linguistics, and Russian Studies. The minor typically consists of 5 course units, although the requirements vary for the intensive language programs. A minimum grade of C is required in all courses taken to fulfill the minor requirements.

- We encourage all our minors to study abroad. All courses taken abroad will count towards graduation. Two of the courses will count towards the five courses required for a minor.

Please check the World Languages and Cultures Undergraduate Bulletin for the specific minor requirements for each language

SPANISH/EDUCATION MAJORS

Requirements for Spanish teachers

In order to receive a teaching license in Spanish, the state of NJ requires:

- Spanish major (or at least 30 credits in Spanish with a variety of levels and topics).
- A minimum score of 168 on the Spanish Language Praxis II (#5195).
- A state-approved course in second language acquisition for any certification to teach Spanish (Pre-K, Elementary, Middle or Secondary.) Our course is WLC 390 (taught each Spring, Weds. 5:30pm).
- A minimum an OPI rating of ACTFL Adv. Low.

WORLD LANGUAGES AND LINGUISTICS

The major works well as a second major with many other HSS majors.

Linguists can seek important work in numerous fields across the world including international business, law enforcement, marketing, or government work

Liberal Learning requirements can be fulfilled while completing the major.

Contact Regina Morin (rmorin@tcnj.edu) or Holly Didi-Ogren (holly.didi-ogren@tcnj.edu) for general queries.

The WLL major offers students a strong grounding in linguistics coupled with in-depth study of a world language already offered at the college. Students select a language specialization at the time of joining the major, which will be reflected on their transcript at the time of graduation.

This major is housed in the Department of World Languages and Cultures, and incorporates the best practices with regard to the teaching of world languages already in place in the WLC Department.

WORLD LANGUAGES AND LINGUISTICS MAJOR

The World Languages and Linguistics Major enables students to combine a strong grounding in linguistics, including language acquisition, with in-depth study of these language already offered at TCNJ: Arabic, French, Italian, Japanese, and Spanish.

The major consists of four linguistics courses and seven courses in a world language offered by TCNJ. The seven courses in a world language will be the student's specialization within the major, and that specialization is reflected on the student's transcript. At least 5 courses must be taken at the 300 level.

Requirements for the World Languages and Linguistics Major (indicates fulfills Liberal Learning requirements)

Linguistics Requirements

Choose at least one Linguistic Theory Core Course:

WORLD LANGUAGES AND LINGUISTICS
MAJOR

- ◆ Are you interested in how languages work and what people do with them?
- ◆ Do you want to open yourself to post-graduate work opportunities in international business, law enforcement, marketing, or government work?

The World Language and Linguistics major is a great choice for a second major, and combines well with many other HSS majors.

Even students who enter with no knowledge of a foreign language will have ample time to complete the required seven language courses.

Fulfill your Liberal Learning requirements while completing the major.
