Planning Committee

- An email was sent from Jane Wong about the upcoming CAABR training on grading participation.
- There is only one hour for meeting because of the faculty senate meeting, but the room will be kept so folks can stay after 1 hour
- Food will be available at the beginning so folks can eat while chatting,
- The RSVP system will be used to estimate the food order.
- In the RSVP folks can provide a preference of whether they want to hear about grading participation in small or larger classes.
- The goals and structure of the workshop need to be firmed up soon.
- Short readings folks can look at before, to use as a point of discussion, need to be finalized
 - Jane's participation grade email, from Insider Higher Ed, will be one of the shared readings
 - Ada shared multiple links for other possible readings
- The HSS Anti-Racism Advocates will help facilitate the grading participation discussion

Curriculum group

- Is in the process of completing and sharing a draft of the learning goals application
- Assessment is not being addressed by the learning goals and Curriculum Committee app, but it is something that needs to be addressed later on down the road.
- The plan is to submit proposal to CC this semester, so in fall implementation can start

The next full meeting will be March 22nd, Wednesday
