

Three-Year Baccalaureate Degree Programs

Anthropology; Criminology; English; History; Philosophy; Psychology;
Sociology; and Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies*

The College of New Jersey offers a unique opportunity for motivated students to expedite and complete their degree in three years!

The TCNJ 3-Year Bachelor's programs in Anthropology, Criminology, English, History, Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology or Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies are perfect for highly-motivated students.*

*Our 3-year Bachelor's Degree will save both time and money without sacrificing the full college experience. Like all students at TCNJ, we encourage our 3-year degree seekers to be actively engaged in the life of our community through internships, clubs, athletics, study abroad programs, and so much more!

REQUIREMENTS

1. While admission to all TCNJ programs is determined via a holistic approach, 3-year Degree candidates must have a minimum high school GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
2. Prior to matriculation, confirm transfer credit equivalent for two college-level courses via:
 - Acceptable AP scores, viewable on the TCNJ Advanced Placement webpage and/or
 - Acceptable IB scores (scoring 5 or higher on the IB exam) and/or
 - College-level courses on an official college transcript with a B grade average

Students in a 3-year program will have a designated 3-year advisor for their major. They will not be permitted to overload in a semester when taking a writing intensive course, and will complete the 6 units (classes) needed to graduate during the winter session, summer session and/or a one-semester overload each academic year.

Please contact TCNJ Admissions at 609-771-2131 for more information.

 Students admitted into the Psychology - Clinical Mental Health Counseling track must meet the 3-year program requirements.*

 3-year programs are not recommended for those seeking admission into Medical School or direct admission into doctoral programs.*
